

East Potomac Tennis Center (EPTC)

EPTC is one of the largest public tennis facilities in the Washington, DC area, located along the Potomac waterfront at beautiful Hains Point.

Convenient to Virginia and Maryland, the state-of-the-art indoor facility houses five lighted courts and offers year-round tennis play at a comfortable 70 degrees. The facility includes new lighting and a modern pro shop stocked with the latest tennis equipment and refreshments. Plus, with our new, brilliantly surfaced courts, you can play your best game ever!

EPTC also has 24 outdoor courts available—10 clay and 14 hard-surfaced—including lighted courts for evening play, as well as a practice wall. Walk-in, reserved and seasonal contract court time is available; membership is not required.

EPTC is available for corporate events, group, private or semi-private lessons, leagues, socials, tournaments, and clinics. Showers and locker rooms are on-site as well as free parking.

Junior Programs

EPTC's New Junior Tennis Program

EPTC is excited to launch its new comprehensive junior tennis program! With the addition of Coach Michael Summers to the EPTC team as Director of Junior Tennis, we are now able to offer a range of programs and classes designed for players 4 to 18 years of age, at a variety of skill levels.

Michael Summers, Director of Junior Tennis

Michael has over 20 years of experience coaching and developing junior, collegiate, and professional tennis players. As the former Director of the Evert Tennis Academy, Michael has developed numerous leading junior tennis programs. He also has worked with the United States Tennis Association (USTA) Player Development program as the Administrator of Junior Competition. Prior to working with the USTA, Michael was a tennis professional with the prestigious Harry Hopman Saddlebrook International Tennis Academy.

Private and Semi-Privates

Private: $62-$70 per hour

Semi-Private: $35 per person per hour

Reservations for private and semi-private lessons may be made by phone or email up to seven days in advance with a major credit card. Cancellations must be made 24 hours prior to scheduled lesson time or students will be responsible for the entire lesson fee. Fees for private lessons vary based on lesson time.
